Avast me Hearties!

Annual Dock walk...

hosted by

Mike and Patty Blackburn

It be that time of the year when all the beauties and scalawags from YBYC clean up them peg legs and pirate patches and walks the plank, er, dock scrounging up victuals from the bung hole and swill a pint or two of grog with yer maties.

And why be this dock walk different from the rest? Because this year it be on National Talk Like a Pirate Day, September 19th from 6 pm to dark. And we can continue the festivities in the clubhouse with more on that later.

So all ye Scurvy Dogs, Cap'n an mates alike, prepare to boarded and open yer pirate ship to the crew and let Mad Mary Vane know if ye be participating. Who be this Mad Mary Vane ye ask? It be the Pirate Name for Pat Blackburn. And here be her Pirate Personality...

"Every pirate is a little bit crazy. She, though, is more than just a little bit. She tends to blend into the background occasionally, but that's okay, because it's much easier to sneak up on people and disembowel them that way." Arr

Want yer own Pirate Name and Personality? Here be the link:<http://www.piratequiz.com/>

Race and Cruise Report...

By Greg Krutzikowsky

Fall begins this month as the days quickly shorten their daylight hours. That of course means that we need to start our Wednesday night races a little earlier to take advantage of the light we have as well as the breeze which tends to fade with the dying light. Races now have their warning signal at 6 PM, so please don't be late.

Fall also means Columbus Day Regatta. This year the regatta will be held October 10 and 11. This is our biggest regatta of the year and the Notice of Race is posted on the YBYC website. Those who can plan a little bit ahead can save enough on early registration to buy an extra t-shirt. You won't want to miss out on this year's stellar design. So don't delay register today! We can also use some help again this year on chase and Committee boat, as well as hospitality at the clubhouse. This is a really fun event with great racing, great food, and great people. You don't want to miss out, so plan on racing, helping, or just coming to join us for dinner to absorb the amazing energy of the YBYC Columbus Day Regatta.
