Commodore's log

I hope you all got a chance to see the ship America. I want to thank Joe Novello and everyone else who helped get it here.

There has been lots of activity on the water, hope you have been part of it. Thanks to everyone who is teaching and making things happen.

Don't forget the monthly dinner on Sat Aug 15th at 6:30.

Amy and I are filling in as House Chair for the next few months. The board position is open if you are interested. We could use some help shampooing the carpets and cleaning the windows etc. If you can give a hand please call me at (541) 961-5830.

Thanks for all you do.

Commodore Kelly

Race and Cruise Report...

By Greg Krutzikowsky

Although summer isn't really over until September 21, our Wednesday Fall Series starts August 19. There is some logic to this early start of Fall Series, but rather than going through its convolutions it's better to just realize it's happening. If you are racing now is a great time to look forward and pick the date you want to be Committee boat. As of this writing all spots are open except the first Wednesday of the Series. Remember to sign up online at the link near the bottom of the YBYC Wednesday Racing webpage.

Whatever series it is, this is prime time for getting out on the water sailing. It's also a great time of year to get out onto the ocean whether to go sailing, wildlife watching, and/or fishing. Salmon season is open and word is the bite has been on. For those more adventurous there are tuna that have been caught less than 20 miles offshore.

It was a real treat to have the replica of the schooner America here in Yaquina Bay and to be able to go aboard her and have an opportunity to go for a sail. I did get a few nice photos of some YBYC members helping fold the huge American flag they flew from the masthead and enjoying their time aboard. The presentation that Trevor gave Saturday evening was very informative and insightful. Great to have a chance to hear from someone who has been close to the America's Cup event. America sure looked beautiful under sail on Sunday and I'm sure we all wish her fair winds on her long trip spreading the word about the Cup.

Almost Free...

Tom McNamara's brother has come into possession of 2 survival suits, and would like to give them to an appropriate person. All he asks is the cost of shipping. They are Helly-Hansen, and appear to be unused. They were given to him by a friend who had them for a sail across the Atlantic. I don't think they look like neoprene in the photos, so I don't know if they are truly immersion suits. The first one appears to be unused.
