Commodore's Report

July was another busy month. Does it ever slow down? We were sponsors for the Wild Seafood Cook off event. It was a fundraiser for the Fisherman's wives. It was very well attended and teams prepared seafood for the 500 event participants. It was yummy!

Thank You to our July hosts, the Allen's, who made a scrumptious shrimp boil.

The club received a donation of life jackets from the Oregon Boating Foundation. Ollie Richardson is the new executive director of the OBF. Congratulations to Ollie and welcome to fun on the bay. Thanks again for the donation.

A very busy month is ahead of us. Please consider volunteering for the listed events. We need some help!

YBYC will be hosting the Chamber after hours event on August 18th from 5:15 to 7:00pm. Light refreshments needed. Volunteers are also needed for the Toledo wooden boat show. 3 hour shifts.

- August 18: Chamber After House, 5:15-7:00. Need volunteers.
- August 19-21: Toledo Wooden Boat Show sign up sheet at clubhouse or contact Peggy. 3 hours shifts
- August 20: Hosts Alan, Kim and Raina – pulled pork sandwiches

Looking to replace the roof maybe this year or next. Any roofers out there???

We have two nice kayaks for sale contact Tom McNamara for more information.

Adult sailing classes have begun. We will soon have new enthusiastic sailors who will be eager to sail our bay. YBYC wants to encourage everyone to get their Oregon Boaters Card. On line classes available at <https://www.oregon.gov/OSMB/boater-info/Pages/Boater-Education-Cards.aspx>

A Memorial Gathering and celebration of life for our dear Ann Williams will be held on August 20th from 12-3pm. Ann was a life member of YBYC. A lover of sailing and life! Please join us.

Cheers,

Commodore O'Callaghan
